During that time, he has witnessed /dealt with a very wide range of crime. He has recently moved over to the Thrapston area to his new role as PCSO to Irthlingborough and several local villages.

He invited questions and asked if there were any specific areas of concern the Councillors would like to bring to his attention.

him to carry out a lot of work away from his base in Thrapston giving him longer in the areas he covered.

Councillors raised several ongoing issues in the town they would like PCSO Burrows to focus on.

PCSO Burrows was already aware of and working on most of them, he noted the others.

They also asked if he had any updates on a couple of incidents raised in February's CCTV report.

PCSO Burrows hadn't seen the CCTV report and said he would look into how he accessed the reports and the information from the CCTV contractor.

126.6 TO CONSIDER AN APPLICATION FROM A MARKET TRADER WISHING TO SELL EGGS ALONGSIDE THE FRUIT AND VEGETABLE TRADER

The Assistant Clerk explained that the trader wishing to sell eggs wanted to do so on a weekly basis – not only at the towns monthly market. Two other traders currently do this - the fruit and veg trader and the preserves trader. She also informed members that the fruit and veg trader sells eggs on their stall and another permanent premises owner nearby sells eggs too.

This application was discussed at great length. The Assistant Clerk had approached the existing traders selling eggs and they did not feel there was enough demand to support another trader and the competition would be detrimental to their sales.

There was also the issue of covering every weekend. Currently the two traders who traded weekly had signed indemnities to say they would manage themselves so no Council presence was required. However, if the number of traders on days/weeks in addition to the towns monthly market grew a Council presence would become necessary and the Council did not have the staff to provide that.

RESOLVE ITC/03(23)/480 – that the Council write to the market trader wishing to sell eggs thanking them for their interest but, unfortunately his application is declined as an existing trader sells eggs.

Councillor C Cross indicated that the Wildlife Trust would organise the event and complete the required risk assessments, they were suggesting the litter pick took place between 11 am and 2pm on Monday 8th May 2023.
